To the Women of the Presbyterian Church in the Synod of New York.

DEAR SISTERS:

To answer the various questions arising as to the work of the New York Synodical Committee, permit a few words of explanation and suggestion.

The appointment of representative women in each presbytery by the synod, was not intended to exercise any authority over or control of existing societies, but to coöperate with and strengthen them, and where no presbyterial society exists to secure their formation.

"This action was in accordance with the report of Standing Committee of Home Missions to the General Assembly of 1882, viz.: '3. The Assembly hereby reiterates its former recommendation that the several synods appoint Ladies' Synodical Committees, to coöperate with the Woman's Executive Committee in more thoroughly organizing the work in the presbyteries and churches.'"

The transfer of Home Mission work of the Ladies' Board of Missions to this Committee involves no change whatever in local organizations.

Societies that have combined Home and Foreign work will do the same, only now reporting to different officers.

The work transferred to this Committee includes several schools among the poor whites in North Carolina. As this is distinct from the other departments of work, and must be so supported, we would urge its sacred claim upon the women of our State.

We would recommend the following suggestions:

1. That the Committee see that the work among the women of our churches be organized presbyterially.

2. That local organization be urged in every church by forming auxiliaries and mission bands, and in the Sabbath-school.

3. That to secure efficient results, we recommend personal visitation by a member or members of presbyterial committees. And where presbyteries are not organized, that the work be done by this Synodical Committee coöperating with any mission societies already formed.

4. That a plan of systematic personal giving be urged upon the women—to give "as God has prospered them," "neither will I offer unto the Lord, my God, that which doth cost me nothing."

5. That the claims of the North Carolina work be brought before each auxiliary. It has come to us and we cannot repudiate the solemn trust.

6. That we suggest the plan adopted by other Synodical Committees of securing a Synodical Fund for contingent expenses, by the assessment of five cents a member of all local societies.

7. We earnestly appeal to the 89,000 Presbyterian women of our State to help us by prayer and sympathy as well as consecrated gifts, to extend this glorious work committed to us by our Master to redeem the dark portions of our own loved country, for His glory who has given to us this goodly heritage.

MRS. MARY HARTLEY BROWN.

In compliance with the request that each Presbytery in the Synod of New York should organize a Ministerial Home Missionary Society, the ladies of Albany Presbytery met and organized such a Society Nov. 2nd. 1882.
Feb. 14th. 1883 we held our 1st Annual Meeting. Mr Sheldon Jackson addressed us & encouraged and inspired them with new enthusiasm.
We have been trying to work according to Presbyterian polity, and are endeavoring at present to impress the churches with the necessity of such uniformity of action.
Being in our infancy we have not accomplished in many ways what we hope to do in the future. We hope to report another year more systematic work done. Several churches have recently began to work with us who have heretofore stood aloof.

Blanks were sent to the 46 churches in Presbytery. But only 19 were returned to me.

1300 leaflets have been printed by the Presb. Soc. and distributed since its organization. I enclose copies of them.

Respectfully submitted.

Rev F. L. Commermann.

We have endeavored in various ways to keep alive and cultivate an interest in Home Missions, among the women & children of - Presbyterian and, we believe there are but three or four Churches (and these are weak & scarcely self supporting Churches) which do not report some form of organized effort in behalf of the Cause of Home Missions.

The Annual Meeting of our Society was held Feb. 20, with a larger attendance than at any evening meeting. The officers of last year were re-elected, and the meeting addressed by Mr. Sheldon Jackson D.D.

While we are greatly encouraged by the results of the year's efforts, we still earnestly strive & pray that the year upon which we have Synod of New York, - Presbytery of Troy, 1883.

Troy, N.Y.
March. 20. 1883.

My dear Mrs. Grisley,

The report of our Corresponding Secretary is necessarily so long, containing, as it does so much of home work, in detail, that I will not send it to you - but respectfully submit the following summary, making it as brief as possible -

Our Society has held three meetings during the year — two regular and one special meeting - At the latter held Oct-18. Mrs. R.H. McClellan was elected Cor. Sec. in place of Mrs. E.A. Peck, resigned, after which the meeting was addressed by Mrs. F.E.H. Harris of New York & Mrs. Walker of Colorado the need of work and workers in the West & N. West, was so earnestly & effectively set forth in these addresses, that the large audiences were profoundly impressed with the importance of immediate action, and we believe much good accomplished for the H. M. cause - As a result, appeals were sent out through the Presb'y for contributions to a fund for furnishing one of the Garfield Memorial Chapels in Utah, and a bell for the Chapel at Poncha Springs -

Responses came so promptly and generously, that in Dec. furniture complete, with bell, organ and stove, was sent to Hyrum, Utah, also, to Mrs. Walker, for bell at Poncha Springs, $60 — the sum needed to supplement the amount she had already received from other sources -

We have, at present, fifteen Scholarships in Sitka, Utah, and N. M. - an increase of five since last year - Also a corresponding increase in aid furnished families of Missionaries at the West, and Freedmen at the South - By reference to the enclosed Treasurer's Report, it will be seen that monies have been raised and work done for various objects, showing a gratifying interest in general H. M. work - In addition to the money raising and Aid furnished, increased attention has been given to the circulation of missionary literature in our S. Schools as well as the amount sent to the West & South - One of our churches alone has sent 8270 copies of papers & magazines to the West, and the number of books for the use of entered, may be much more fruitful in work for the Master, and the spread of His kingdom.

A brief summary of our work as a Society was read up to Presbytery convened in our City in Feb'y, which was accepted and the following resolutions relative thereto adopted, which I enclose together with some resolutions passed at our Ann. meeting relation to the Synodical Society.

In Christian Love,

Mrs. R. N. McClellan

Cor. Sec. Woman's Bds. Soc. H.M. Presb'y Inv.

Resolved;

That; as a Presbyterial Society, we unite with Synodical organization, and endeavor, by all the means in our power, to help in exciting Enthusiasm, Earnestness and zeal for the cause of Home Missions among the Ladies of the Synod of New York—

Resolved;

That; for the present, we send our contributions directly from our Presbyterial Treasurer, to the Treasurer of the Executive Com. in New York, as we feel it is not necessary to complete organization, to multiply Treasurers for the money intended for the field.

Troy. Feb. 20. 1842—

The Presbytery of Troy, having heard with great pleasure, of the work of the Woman's Board of H. Missions, within our bounds gratefully records this minute:

Resolved, that we heartily approve of the course taken by our Woman's Board of Home Missions; we admire & commend the zeal & perseverance, which has resulted in gathering nearly $4000 for this noble cause in one year; we urge all the churches to form & encourage auxiliary branches to this Society; and we hope & trust, that their work may be still more blessed & prospered in the years to come.

To the above, it is necessary to say that North Carolina has a regular system of common schools, and therefore the Board and the Womans's Executive Committee by their rules cannot undertake this work. But the Ladies' Board of Missions in New York being under no such restrictions, was carrying forward this school work, till its dissolution last spring. The Woman's Synodical Committee have taken up the work of that society, and of this school as a very important, though somewhat irregular work. The friends of the school will be glad to see such high testimony in its favor.

THE:

Woman's Synodical Committee

OF THE

SYNOD OF NEW YORK.

MRS. M. HARTLEY BROWN, PRESIDENT.
MRS. JOHN SINCLAIR, TREASURER,
No. 1 BROADWAY, NEW YORK CITY.

NORTH CAROLINA.

WHITE-HALL SEMINARY.

EXCEPTIONALLY EXCEPTIONAL PEOPLE.

Rev. Luke Dorland, President of Scotia Seminary, at Concord, N. C., writes as follows:

"You inquired of me some time ago, respecting a work going on in this vicinity at White-Hall Seminary under the Ladies' Board in New York. I am interested in that work, and know its history from the beginning. The Seminary is three miles from this place. Four lady teachers are employed in it, two of whom are graduates of Mt. Holyoke Seminary. The other two are from Bloomfield, N. J. All are excellent ladies, and are doing a good work. They all dined with us yesterday, and left here this morning. I volunteered to write to you, and give you some account of the work done there.

"About four years ago, two ladies, Mrs. Scott, of New York, and Miss Ufford of Bloomfield, came to this place under the Ladies' Board, to do missionary work among the poorer class of the people. They were under the impression that they could visit and work among the negroes and the whites both. But we assured them, and they readily saw that that could not be done here. They commenced visiting and praying with the poorer class of white people with manifest interest. Quite a number professed conversion. Among the rest was an old drunken man of over sixty, an energetic leader in sin in his neighborhood. He forsook his cups and his swearing, and began to pray. Others also were awakened to pray. In that vicinity lived a venerable man of eighty years, a hater of slavery, and a lover of Barnes' writings, a decided union man, who had consecrated six acres of his land to the cause of education, and he and his son now in middle life, had hoped and prayed that some way might be opened for the education of the poor, ignorant, and degraded white people around them. They persuaded these ladies, with the concurrence of the ladies in New York, to open a school on that lot of land, in a small cabin, and attempt to do for their people what we are doing for the colored people in Scotia Seminary. This house was soon filled with young people eager to learn, but as ignorant almost as the heathen. Persons unacquainted with the facts, can scarcely conceive the ignorance of more than half the white people in this region. The teachers felt encouraged to erect a new building, and the friends at New York sent me six hundred dollars, with which, with some aid here, Mr. White, the middle-aged man that I spoke of, and I, erected a house two stories high, 44x24 feet. They used the first house, the cabin for a kitchen and a dining-room.

"The aim is three-fold: to have a centre from which to do mission work; to stimulate a desire for knowledge among those neglected people, giving them a chance to rise; and also to raise up teachers for the districts of the surrounding country, as means are provided for schools. The common schools cannot run longer than two or three months, and suitable teachers cannot be found for even that time.

"Within the last two years, an additional wing has been erected, 18x40 feet, and two stories high, making it in the form of an L. The school now numbers about seventy or eighty pupils, fifteen of whom are boarders, the work being done by the pupils. One of these pupils is the daughter of an associate Reformed Minister of South Carolina. The ministers here are beginning to notice the work favorably, and occasionally to preach in their school-room. To us, it seems that nothing would tend to disarm prejudice and create friendship between the two sections of the church more than the establishment of such schools here and there in the South. We hope soon to be able to send out from White-Hall Seminary well-qualified, religious teachers to help in the work of evangelizing these poor people, as well as to teach them how to take care of their children and their houses. The property is deeded to the Board of Home Missions of our church. Could you, as Secretary, do any thing towards the advancement of such a work? Two things are needed now. The one is a regular support for the teachers. The other is about 800 to 1,000 dollars to erect another building, so as to enable the teachers to secure at least twice the present number of boarders. We hope to see, not many years hence, a flourishing Seminary, after the Mt. Holyoke plan, to raise up teachers, especially for the middle and lower classes of the people."

As to the above, Prof. Thomas J. Lamar, of Maryville College, Tenn., than whom no man can speak more intelligently on the subject says:

"I would say these women at White Hall are on the right way. They are doing foundation work—the long-neglected work of the South. Lift up the lower strata and the upper will not suffer, but be benefited thereby. The work ought to be well supported, at any rate at present, by annual contributions, and as soon as ready for a Holyoke, let them have it. I could hardly conceive of a better thing for every Southern State than just such an institution. Such work is slow, but absolutely essential and sure of great results."
